The Obio Statesmun has much to say about the duty of the North to "conciliate Southern Union men," as though those who are already loyal and peaceful needed to be "conciliated." We copy from the Statesman a paragraph on this subject:

"If the loyal and Union men of the South are not conciliated and brought into active and zealous co-operation with the friends of the Union in the North, then there will be but little hope left that the great need of the country—the restoration paster of a Baptlat Church, to the "Journal and Messenand preservation of the Union upon the old

In the subjoined extracts from a speech delivered in the United States Senate by Hon.

Andrew Joinson, of Tennessee, in which is briefly stated what the Union men of his section demand, and which show how they may be "conciliated:"

"I come to the Government, and I do not ask it as a suppliant, but I demand it as a constitutional right, that you give us protection, GIVE US ARMS AND MUNITIONS. and if they cannot be got there in any other way, to TAKE THEM THERE WITH AN INVADING ARMY, and deliver the people from the oppression to which they are now subjected.

"If you will give us protection we intend another column. 30w5 to stand as a State, as a part of this Confederacy, holding to the Stars and Stripes, the flag of our country. We demand it ac cording to law; we demand it upon the guarantees of the Constitution. You are bound to guarantee to us a republican form of Government, and we ask it as a Consti-tutional right. We do not ask you to interfere as a party, as your feelings or prejudices may be one way or another in ref-erence to the parties of the country; but we ask you to interfere as a Government according to the Constitution. Of course we want your sympathy, and your regard, and your respect; but we ask your interferance on Constitutional grounds."

Muscle vs Beef. Armstrong of Tiffin and Ramsey of Kenton were competitors for the empty honor of a nomination, by the late Secession Convention at Columbus, for Secretary of State. Ramsey, being of an elephantine form (weight being about 350 fbs,) was distance ed on the first round Armstrong making "2:40 time on the plank."

We think the democracy made a fats mistake, in not putting Ramsey on their ticket, for he certainly would have given more weight to the ticket than any other man in the State, which is an important consideration. However as the nomination is a mere matter of form—simply "going OLIVER H. FUSSELMAN, announces his through the motions," like the man who "kept tavern" out west-we suppose the subject to the decision of the people. Convention thought that the nomination of Ramsey would only be a waste of raw material, which might be used for some better purpose. The Convention didn't to the decision of the people. want to risk much, so they put Armstrong of and left Ramsey off.—Tiffin Tribune.

A letter was also found from the editors of the New York Day Book, asking for the list of Democratic papers in that State, and information as to which of these papers "are pro-war, which anti-war, and which on the fence." This is conclusive evidence that the traitors of the North have taken measures for concerted opposition to the Government, and that there is more method in their madness than would at first thought appear.

Great Cure

DR. DELAND'S Anti-Rheumatic Band, IS THE ONLY KNOWN REMEDY FOR Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia,

AND A SURE CURE FOR

ALL MERCURIAL DISEASES. it is a conveniently arranged Band, containing a medicated compound, to be worn around the waint, without injury to the most delicate persons, no change in habits of living is required, and it cutively removes the disease from the system, without producing the injurious effects arising from the use of powerful internal medicines which weaken and destroy the constitution, and give temporary relief only. By this treatment, the medicinal properties contained in the Band, come in contact with the bleed and reaches the disease, through the pores of the skin, effecting in every instance a perfect cure, and restores the partia afflicted to a healthy condition. This Band is also a most powerful Awri-MERCHALL sgeal, and will entirely relieve the system from the permicious effects of Mercury. Moderate cases are cored in a few days, and we are constantly receiving testimonials of its efficacy in aggravated cases of long standing.
